

Aboutique small group tour, carefully created by Amanda Taylor-Ace inspired by her love of Provence. Join Amanda and Chef Theo Michaels (www.TheoMichaels.com) as they share their « joie de vivre » - the joy of living.

Theo Michaels was born in London to a large Greek Cypriot family. Making the semi-finals of BBC TV's MasterChef in 2014 spurred him into giving up corporate life to become a chef, food writer and occasionally on the telly and radio. Theo has been published three times with his fourth book due out March 2020.

Spend 6 fabulous days based in the restored 18th century villas, nestled in a typical Provencal hillside village, enjoying all day sun within a walled garden covered with vines, outdoor terraces and swimming pool. Be treated to the regional sightseeing highlights and gourmet delights, while enjoying a range of evening entertainment.

After breakfast we leave for the Uzes Saturday Market.

Uzes boasts it has the best market for miles around and it has. Great photo opportunities and present buying as well as wonderful fresh produce beautifully presented that is a visual delight.

Own lunch from one of the many restaurants and cafés and time for wandering through the medieval streets of Uzes and maybe even climbing up to the top of the Duchy (the no 1 in France where the Duke and Duchess are often in Residence) and looking over the rooftops of Uzes.

Dinner back at the Maison with one of our chefs or Dinner at local restaurant Estanque.

Music tonight (if eating in) by our famous talented musician Michel Eliard who plays classical and flamenco guitar and can sing anything from Rock and Roll to wonderful French songs.

Day 3: Sunday 17th May

8am Breakfast.

Walk into Uzes for those that want to with

Deputy Mayor Gaby Delsart who will explain the history of the area as you walk. You will end up at the « source » of the water that starts in the Valley de L'Eure and was transported across country and over the Amazing « Pont Du Gard » the Roman aqueduct (still standing after 2,000 years) and on to Nimes which was the Centre of the Roman Empire at that time.

The others will go to the local Flea Market but don't worry we will take the walkers there too! There you can find many treasures amongst the trash!

Lunch at the Maison with Amanda's recipes for Black and Green Tapenade, Lavosh biscuits and a goats cheese salad.

Dinner with our fabulous Chef Theo Michaels who will be cooking one of his signature dishes, and regaling up with his amusing repartee.

Music with Michel Eliard (as Day 2).

Day 4: Monday 18th May

8am Breakfast.

9.30am Excursion to Les Baux de Provence the ancient family keep of the Grimaldi family. Wander amongst the castle ruins and admire the 360 degree view over the countryside.
